DETAILED ACTION

Terminal Disclaimer

The terminal disclaimer filed on 27 October 2008 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration dates of 6,982,377 and 7,328,076 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1 – 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as not falling within one of the four statutory categories of invention. Supreme Court precedent and recent Federal Circuit decisions (Diamond v. Diehr, 450 U.S. 175, 184 (1981); Parker v. Flook, 437 U.S. 584, 588 n.9 (1978); Gottschalk v. Benson, 409 U.S. 63, 70 (1972); Cochrane v. Deener, 94 U.S. 780, 787-88 (1876) and In re Bilski, 88 USPQ2d 1385 (Fed. Cir. 2008)) indicate that a statutory “process” under 35 U.S.C. 101 must (1) be tied to another statutory category (such as a particular apparatus), or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or material) to a different state or thing.

While the instant claim recites a series of steps or acts to be performed, the claim neither transforms underlying subject matter nor is positively tied to another statutory category that accomplishes the claimed method steps, and therefore does not qualify as a statutory process.

For example the time scale modification method including steps of analyzing, selecting a base overlap, calculating, selecting a value K and synthesizing an output is of sufficient breadth that it would be reasonably interpreted as a series of steps completely performed mentally, verbally or without a machine. The Applicant has provided no explicit and deliberate definitions of "analyzing", "selecting a base overlap," "calculating," "selecting a value K," or " synthesizing an output " to limit the steps to the electronic form of the " time scale modification," and the claim language itself is sufficiently broad to read on a person mentally performing each step claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4 – 6 are allowed for the reasons set forth in previous actions and responses.
